- Sigma Stars (Maths Club)
- Tech Titans (Science Club)
- Captain Cooks (Non-fire cooking Club)
- Boomers (Games and Sports Club)
- Xpressions (Drama Club)
- Helping Hand (Community Services Club)

Opting for an activity club in school can be highly beneficial to students across all classes from 1 to 12 for several reasons:

1. Skill Development: Activity clubs offer opportunities to develop various skills, such as leadership, teamwork, communication, creativity, and critical thinking. These skills are crucial for personal growth and future success.
2. Diverse Interests: Clubs cater to a wide range of interests, including sports, arts, music, drama, robotics, debate, and more, allowing students to explore and nurture their passions beyond academics.
3. Social Interaction: Joining clubs helps students interact with peers who share similar interests, fostering friendships and a sense of community within the school.
4. Time Management: Balancing academic responsibilities with club activities teaches students valuable time management skills, preparing them for the challenges of higher education and professional life.
5. Boosting Confidence: Achieving success or improvement in club activities enhances students' self-confidence and self-esteem, positively impacting their overall well-being.

6. Leadership Opportunities: Many clubs offer leadership roles such as captain, president, or organizer, providing chances to develop leadership qualities and responsibilities.

7. Exploration of Career Paths: Clubs related to specific fields (like STEM clubs or language clubs) can help students explore potential career paths early on, providing insights and practical experience.

8. Physical and Mental Health and Well-ness: Active participation in sports or fitness clubs promotes physical health, while artistic or mindfulness clubs contribute to mental well-being, creating a balanced approach to education.

9. Fun and Enjoyment: Beyond educational benefits, clubs offer a space for students to relax, have fun, and de-stress from academic pressures, contributing to their overall happiness.

Overall, activity clubs in schools play a crucial role in holistic student development by offering a platform for learning, growth, socialization, and personal enrichment from an early age through to graduation.
